

Lesson #12
Reading the Bible:
Prophecies Still to Come

Lesson #12: Prophecies Still to Come

It's not always easy to identify what prophecies have passed and exactly which ones are still yet to come. There is so much covering up and deception in the world that it's hard to know what to believe. When you think about it, we really don't know without a doubt how much time has passed since the book of Revelation was written. Most of the early calendars created by man make little logical sense to the average person or have been changed numerous times throughout history. The only thing we know for sure is what we have seen with our own two eyes and what is written in the Bible.

According to the Bible, the world is going to go through a period of great moral decline. Anyone who turns on their TV or reads the news online can see that things are making a sharp turn for the worse. We know that before things get better, certain prophecies must be fulfilled.

Read Isaiah 60:2 KJV

---

It is imperative to understand that no matter how dark things get here on earth, there is light at the end of the tunnel.

Read Isaiah 2:1-3 to find out where the Lord will be found when He returns and what the people of God will be doing and saying at that time:

Read Revelation 21:2-3 to find out where the kingdom of God will come from and where it will stay: _____

---

It is clear from the passages given, that the kingdom of heaven, New Jerusalem, will be established here on this earth in the future. Some people argue that the texts above should not be taken literally, while others place them in an even more distant time period. However, a prophecy found in the book of Daniel, not only proves that the kingdom is indeed a literal kingdom, but it also shows that we are now within reach of seeing the prophecy come to pass...

Read Daniel 2:41-44 KJV

---

It is clear from the passages provided that the Kingdom of Heaven, New Jerusalem, will be established here on this Earth in the future. Some people argue that the texts above should not be taken literally, while others place them in an even more distant time period. However, a prophecy found in the book of Daniel, not only proves that the kingdom is indeed a literal kingdom, but it also shows that we are now within reach of seeing the prophecy come to pass...

Read Revelation 11:15 KJV

---

It is evident that when the kingdom of heaven arrives, there will be both believers and unbelievers still dwelling on the earth. Only those who are found worthy will be allowed to enter in through the gates of the kingdom...

Read Isaiah 40:5 KJV

---

Read Ezekiel 37:27-28 KJV

---

Read 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 KJV

---

Read Revelation 21:27 KJV

---

Read Revelation 22:14-15 KJV

---

Whether the kingdom will literally come down out of heaven or be assembled here on Earth, are details to ponder. In any event, this prophecy concerning the very end supports the fact that people outside of the one hundred and forty-four thousand saints will not be leaving this Earth; instead, the kingdom will come down to us...

Read Revelation 3:12-13 KJV

---

Read Revelation 21:10-12 KJV

---

As mentioned before, we don't know when Christ will return with the kingdom, but we do know that things here on Earth will be in a state of great moral decline; just like it was in Sodom and Gomorrah and in the days of Noah. Very dark days will come upon the Earth, but the people of God need not worry. The Lord has promised our safety as we make our way to the holy city and enter in through the pearly gates...

Read Isaiah 51:11-12 KJV

---

Read Zechariah 8:20-23 KJV

---

Read Isaiah 43:5-9 KJV

---

Read Isaiah 49:22 KJV

---

Read Isaiah 56:8 KJV

---

God will make the path smooth and straight for all those making their way to the city of God. Those who are feeble or ailing will be healed and strengthened. But the unworthy will not even be able to walk upon the path that leads up to the holy gates...

Read Isaiah 35:5-10 KJV

Read Isaiah 52:1 KJV

---

In fact, the bible reveals that all believers will be changed. It is written that in order for mankind to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, we must become immortal. Just like the apostles were changed before they went up to heaven, we also must undergo a transformation before we enter the kingdom down here on Earth...

Read 1 Corinthians 15:50 KJV

The abilities that we will possess will surpass the natural abilities of the non-believers, who do not repent and prove unworthy of everlasting life.

---

As mentioned in a previous chapter, during the time of the final judgment, there will be a second resurrection (see chapter 10). At that time, those who have passed away, those who are living at the time of His final return, and those who are spending time in Hell, will stand before the Lord and the saints. Everyone will have to give an account of their life and will have a chance to repent. Their works (not works in the law), but their actions will testify for them...

Read Isaiah 26:21 KJV

---

Read Revelation 11:18 KJV

---

Read Revelation 20:12-13 KJV

---

Keep in mind, Satan is in the world, trying to deceive whom he can. So, it is possible that he will try to set up a counterfeit kingdom before the true kingdom comes. Even today, I've heard talk of the construction of a 3rd temple in Jerusalem that will conduct ceremonies and sacrifices, which will undermine the fact that Jesus was the Lamb of God and has already died for the sins of the world.

In any event, after all people have been judged, and all those who are found worthy make it safely into the holy city; Satan will be furious. He and his army will attack the city and will fight against the Lord's army...

Read Revelation 19:19 KJV

---

Read Revelation 20:8-9 KJV

---

Read Revelation 17:14 KJV

---

Read Malachi 4:3 KJV

---

Needless to say, Christ and His army will prevail. Satan and all who chose the side of evil will be destroyed, and no one will lament for them. Their ashes will smolder forever and ever...

Read Revelation 14:9-11 KJV

Read Jeremiah 25:33 KJV

---

Read Isaiah 66:24 KJV

---

---

After these things come to pass, the righteous will inherit the whole world. The Lord who created the Earth, will make all things new. We don't know how long the rejuvenation process will take; maybe seven days, seven years or one thousand years... we don't know. But what we do know is that everyone who is saved will enjoy the bounties that the renewed world will have to offer. Christ will sit on the throne of power and we will be with God forever...

Read Isaiah 51:3 KJV

Read Revelation 21:4 KJV

---

Read Revelation 21:5-7 KJV

---

Read Revelation 22:1-4 KJV

---

We cannot prove, with worldly evidence, that the prophetic events presented in this bible study have taken place or will soon come to pass. You will have to decide for yourself whether or not your faith can support the scriptural evidence found in this bible study.

I pray that the lessons presented in this bible study series will give you a strong foundation to build your knowledge and understanding on as you read through the bible for yourself. As you read through the bible, you will begin to see everything fall neatly into place. Don't doubt the path that the Holy Spirit guides you to. Allow Him to lead you into all understanding.

God Bless.
